George Rogers Clark
Chapter

1914-16

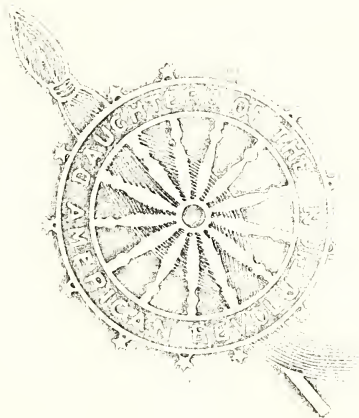

Oak Park, Illinois

ORGANIZED JANUARY, 1886.

Chapter Number 227.

1803448

George Washington

Born November 19, 1752

Died February, 1818

F 8324.12855

"As we look back into the mists enshrouding the making and winning of the Northwest, we see certain great figures thrown like silhouettes by the pine knots of the frontier upon the pages of our history.

And among them all, standing apart, in hunter's garb, and of stoic mien, tall and grim, looms forever the immortal figure of George Rogers Clark."

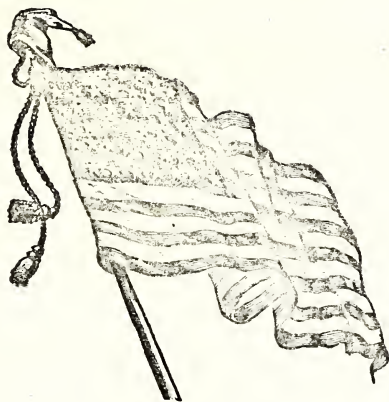

It behooves us to designate a path thro' the wilderness, if only by marked trees, that those who come after may enter, occupy and develop a nobler possession.

George Rogers Clark.

"Oh beautiful, blessed country—
God meant for the wide, wide world—
Let the gifts of thy generous bounty
Fail not till thy flag is furled.
By the wealth of the ore beneath thee,
By thine acres of golden wheat,
By the flowers in field and garden,
By the laughter of children sweet,
By the treasure that God hath sent thee,
By the freedom of church and press,

Thou art pledged to rescue the starving
And succor the world's distress,
Thou must break to the famine stricken
The bread that belongs to thee,
Thou must tell the sad and lonely
That love is theirs to be.
By the cross of Christ and His passion
In the might that is born of prayer,
Oh, beautiful, blessed country,
Thou must lighten the earth's despair."

Margaret E. Sangster.

OUR FLAG PLEDGE.

I pledge allegiance to my Flag and the Republic for which it stands—one Nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

The fixed occasions, for displaying the flag are as follows:

Lincoln's birthday, February 12.

Washington's birthday, February 22.

Battle of Lexington anniversary, April 19.

Memorial day, May 30.

Flag day, June 14.

Battle of Bunker Hill anniversary, June 17.

Independence day, July 4.

Surrender of Yorktown anniversary, October 19.

Evacuation day, November 25.

The American Flag

Its Use:

The American flag is the symbol of the brotherhood of man: It stands for courage, for chivalry, for generosity, and honor.

No hand must touch it roughly; no hand shall touch it irreverently.

Its position is aloft: To float over its children, uplifting their eyes and hearts by its glowing colors and splendid promise; for under the Stars and Stripes are opportunities unknown to any other nation of the world.

The Government commands the people to honor their flag: Men and boys should uncover as they pass the vivid stripes which represent the life blood of brave men, and the stars which shall shine on forever.

It must be raised at sunrise; lowered at sunset. It is not a plaything of the hour: It is a birthright of privilege and integrity.

It may not be used as staff, or whip, or covering.

It shall not be marred by advertisement, nor desecrated on the stage.

It was born in tears and blood: It was baptized in blood and tears.

It has floated since June 14, 1777, over a country of benevolence, refuge, and progress.

It must always be carried upright.

To bear the Star-Spangled Banner is an honor; to own one is a sacred trust.

It is the emblem of Freedom, of Equality, of Justice for every person and creature as it floats unvanquished—untarnished over the open door of free education.

IDA LOUISE GIBBS,

Chairman Committee on Prevention of Desecration of the Flag.

Election shall be by ballot upon the candidates previously nominated for the various offices.

The candidate for each office receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected.

Sec. 5. Any vacancy occurring in an elective office shall be filled by the Board, if the unexpired term shall be six months or less; if more than six months, then the vacancy shall be filled by an election by the Chapter at any regular meeting, due notice having been given.

"The emigration of the first settlers of New England, contemplated in its causes, its circumstances and its results, is the noblest and most touching in all history."

"An undaunted fatherhood, and a sacrificial motherhood established the communities in New England.

"The men and women obeyed to go out into a place that they should receive as an inheritance, and went out, not knowing whither they went.

"They laid broad foundations, and endured as beholding the invisible.

"They greeted the better future from afar and sacrificed for it.

"Is it not worth while to preserve such an heritage and to record such lives as these

The sands that tireless ran through time's lax fingers,
The twelve months past,
We sift with careful hand, seeking a gem--
Some grain of opportunity that, seized and wrought upon by time and thought and care,
Hath crystalized into a jewel bright--
To here and there adorn achievement's crown.
